

Summer Ethics Fellowship for Seminary/Divinity School Students and New Clergy

“I was thoroughly impressed and stimulated by my peers in the Seminary and Medical groups and by the stellar team of educators and guides.” – YITZHAK BRONSTEIN, 2019 SEMINARY FELLOW

FASPE Seminary (Fellowships at Auschwitz for the Study of Professional Ethics in Seminary) is a fully-funded two-week summer program that uses the conduct of the clergy and other religious leaders in Nazi Germany as a launching point and backdrop for an intensive study about the ethical challenges faced by religious leaders today. FASPE Seminary is predicated upon the power of place. Fellows visit Auschwitz and other sites in Germany and Poland where they consider how to apply the lessons of history to the ethical challenges facing religious leaders today.

In 2021 the program will take place from June 11 – June 25. All program costs are covered, including the equivalent of round-trip travel from New York to Europe, as well as all European travel, lodging and food. FASPE Seminary Fellows travel and share some seminars with Fellows in the FASPE Medical program.

FASPE Seminary applicants must either be enrolled in graduate school preparing for work as a theologian or religious leader at the time of application or they must be working as clergy with a relevant graduate degree received between May 2019 and January 2021. Those applying as students may be studying at a seminary, divinity school, rabbinical school, Muslim chaplaincy program or other graduate program related to religious or theological training.
