

Parker Pillsbury is a nonprofit marketing and communications specialist with over a decade of experience in the sector. He graduated magna cum laude with a BA in Psychology from the University of Maryland — Baltimore County. Parker cares deeply about ethical living and strives to do his share in fostering a more compassionate world. He lives in Silver Spring, Maryland, with his wife Tatiana and two cats, Nala and Mango.